Blue Care/Wesley Mission Care and Support Enterprise Bargaining Agreement 2016

You can put lipstick on a pig, but it’s still a pig.

At the most recent EBA meeting, Blue Care/Wesley Mission dropped some of the more nasty claims, but the worst of them still remain.

- Removal of Contracting Out clause
- Blocks of work clause, which will allow management to roster people for 3 shifts a day by agreement
- Ordinary rates if working through Meal Breaks
- Span of hours for day workers extended to 8pm
- Blocking workers from bringing a dispute about any industrial matter

Income Protection

Blue Care/Wesley Mission’s continued refusal to acknowledge workers’ right to control what income protection provider is chosen, and what to do with the savings from choosing a more affordable provider.

Don’t forget that you sacrificed wage increases in the past to get this scheme in place.

The Brighter Side...

Blue Care/Wesley Mission has increased their wage offer, if you consider an extra 0.107% each year for 3.25 years an increase.

The wage increase does not even keep up with inflation.

See over for details of the wage increase.

Send a message

We are getting to the pointy end of negotiations, and the only way we will be able to retain conditions is by sending a clear message.

Print this update out and hand it to your workmates who aren’t members of the AWU.

Have a conversation with your workmates about the cuts Blue Care/Wesley Mission are trying to inflict.

We are only as strong as our numbers on the ground.

The only way we will be able to stop management from stripping away the conditions we fought hard for is by sticking together

Join the AWU today to protect your conditions!
